Lutheran Radio presents

A Journey Through the Hymns with Michael Robert

In anticipation of its launch on 4th March 2012, Lutheran Radio UK brings to you one of the great names in contemporary Christian music. Michael Robert is a talented musician; singer and songwriter and will play a selection of remakes of traditional hymns that will please ears of any age.

Michael will perform live at three Evangelical Lutheran Church of England congregations:

Wednesday, 1st February 2012 at Ascension Lutheran Church in Brandon, Suffolk

Time: 7:30pm

Thursday, 2nd February 2012 at Luther-Tyndale Memorial Church in Kentish Town, London

Time: 7:30pm

Friday, 3rd February 2012 at Christ Lutheran Church in Petts Wood, Kent

Time: 7:30pm

Tickets

Advanced booking is not required since the concert is brought to you free of charge! Any freewill offerings, however, will be gratefully accepted to help Michael with his travel expenses.

The Good News of our Risen Saviour is to be heard online!

Broadcasting a mix of news, views, music, hymns, sport, comment, features, Bible Studies and even Christian trivia this new radio station will appeal to everyone.

The Lutheran faith is the third largest in the world, but in the UK there is a massive blind spot which, it is hoped, this radio station will shed some light on and encourage people to share the Lutheran message, teaching & gospel.

Check out the test programme running now on www.lutheranradio.co.uk and get a taste of what is to come.
